

Jane Skeeter, LEED® AP
Founder & CEO, UltraGlas, Inc.

Nominated by: Boys and Girls Club of the West Valley
Woodbury University

In a Nutshell:

The first girl to be elected Student Body President in her elementary and junior high school, Jane Skeeter embraced community service from a very young age. From the numerous honors she has received for her entrepreneurship and leadership to her dedicated volunteerism, she has continued to leave her unique mark on the San Fernando Valley and the greater Los Angeles region. With a commitment to sustainability, honed at the award-winning company she built, and a passion for nurturing future leaders, she has lent her expertise and her drive to economic development, environmental programs, and educational enrichment in the San Fernando Valley.

What She Does (Past and Present):

- Committee Chair/Member: Boys and Girls Club of the West Valley, 2009-Present
- Board Chair/Officer: Woodbury University School of Business Advisory Board, 2008-Present
- Committee Chair/Member: Valley Industry & Commerce Association (VICA), 2008-Present
- Board Member: The Valley Economic Alliance, 2008-Present
- Committee Chair/Member: NEWH, The Hospitality Industry Network, 1986-Present
- Board Member: Los Angeles Pierce Community College Architecture and Engineering Community Advisory Board, 2014-Present
- Board Member: The L.A. Mayor’s Community Forestry Advisory Committee (CFAC) for CD3, 2019-Present
- Past President/Board Officer: National Association of Women Business Owners-L.A. (NAWBO-LA), 2007-2019
- Board Member: BizFed-Los Angeles County Business Federation, 2009
- Board Member: West Hills Hospital Board of Trustees, 2009-2018
- Board Member: Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, 2008-2012
- Board Member, The Valley Green Team, 2008-2013
- Board Member: National Glass Association, 1984-2019
- Board Member: Val*Pac, 2008-2019
- Advisory Board Member: Promerica Bank Community Advisory Board, 2008-2014

Key Accomplishments:

Jane’s many honors include:

- Icon of Industry Award, NEWH
- Leadership Award, NAWBO

- CEO of the Year/Business Woman of the Decade, San Fernando Valley Business Journal Women in Business
- Pioneer Woman Award, LA City Commission on the Status of Women
- NAWBO/Wells Fargo National Trailblazer Award
- Jane played an instrumental role in securing accreditation and reaffirmation into the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) for Woodbury University. Less than 5% of business schools worldwide have achieved this recognition.

What Drives Her:

“We are all stakeholders in humanity and are responsible for its quality and sustainability. This is an obligation and a right. I always loved helping others, which led to giving on a larger scale, thus my life of community service was launched. I believe our youth hold in their hands nothing less than the survival of humanity and our quality of life. We must help them to become responsible, productive, kind, fulfilled, and ethical adults so they are able to make the planet better for all. A successful kid can make us all succeed.”

What Others Say:

“She has enthusiastically spearheaded and contributed to numerous initiatives, securing the progress of Woodbury University and its students. Ms. Skeeter is a great source of inspiration to faculty and staff and to the students who have a chance to advance, thanks to her selfless and inexhaustible volunteerism.” –Joan Marques, Dean, Woodbury University School of Business

“Jane Skeeter has left her mark on many organizations, educational institutions, and boards of directors concerned with improving the quality of life for Valley residents and businesses. She has served on the Boys and Girls Club of the West Valley for more than 10 years and has dedicated herself to bettering the lives of the 2,700 Club members, most from disadvantaged circumstances. Jane is eminently qualified to be recognized by Fernando.” –Boys and Girls Club of the West Valley